Sheppard's Restaurant Destroyed By Pre-dawn Fire at Whitewater

Plains States Lashed by First Blizzard

6 Inches of Snow
Whipped by 60
Mile an Hour Gusts

By United Press International
Winter's first blizzard lashed the Plains States today with six inches of snow whipped by 60 miles an hour gusts.

In Kansas, tornadoes directly southeast of the season's first major snowstorm flattened buildings and overturned house trailers in an atmospheric squeeze-play.

THE DAKOTAS, Nebraska and northeastern Colorado were alerted for blizzards throughout the day. The Weather Bureau predicted at least six inches of snow in the Dakotas and central Nebraska.

North winds ranged from 30-60 miles per hour in the afflicted area and visibility in some areas dropped to zero. Snowmen and farmers from Montana east to Michigan's Upper Peninsula and south to the Oklahoma Panhandle took precautionary steps to safeguard livestock.

AUTHORITIES BLAMED sudden storms in two deaths in the Southwest. Leonard Murrow, Dacoma, Okla., was electrocuted Sunday night when he touched a felled power line. In New Mexico, a woman motorist was killed when her car went out of control on an icy highway.

Wyoming and eastern Colorado braced for snow and much colder temperatures. Worland, Wyo., reported five inches of snow by midnight Sunday night and from one to three inches of snow was on the ground elsewhere in the two states.

Ike Receives Dollar Report

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today received a report from two top aides on their European mission to enlist the allied help in stemming the flow of gold from the United States.

The White House said Eisenhower would issue a statement on the situation late this afternoon.

WIND FANNED FIRE blazed in the main dining room of Sheppard's Restaurant at Whitewater at 4:45 a. m. today, as units from eight stations of the state Division of Forestry fire department fought to save the building. Blaze, reported at approximately 4 a. m., destroyed dining room and coffee shop. Firemen brought fire under control at approximately 8 a. m., saved office, portions of kitchen, storage room, after units from eight stations fought blaze three hours. Restaurant was recently purchased by owner of Falcon Restaurant in Los Angeles. Smoke and sparks halted traffic on Highway 99 about 30 minutes. (P. S. Newsphoto)

Woman Killed, Husband Injured In Area Crash

CATHEDRAL CITY — Riverside County's only contribution to California's nation-leading highway death toll for the four-day Thanksgiving weekend occurred at 8:15 p. m. Sunday, when a 64-year-old Palm Springs woman was hurled from her overturning car on Wonder Palms Road north of Highway 111.

Mrs. Marion Evelyn Benzing was pronounced dead on arrival at Desert Hospital in Palm Springs.

HER HUSBAND, Adolph, 62, suffered a back injury in the same accident and was hospitalized in Desert Hospital, where officials reported that he was resting comfortably although still in "serious" condition.

California Highway Patrol officers reported that Mrs. Benzing was driving the auto on Wonder Palms Road when she apparently lost control of the vehicle at a rise in the road.

SAFECRACKERS GET $2,000 CASH

A safecracker-burglar crunched through the wall of an empty store building adjacent to the Ramon Drug Store early Sunday morning to gain entry into the drug store and steal approximately $2,000 in cash, Palm Springs police reported.

By Finerman, owner of Ramon Drug, told investigating officers more than $1,000 was taken from a floor safe, and the additional cash was rifled from three cash registers in the store.

Police explained that the adjacent store is being remodeled, and the entire front of the empty building was open. Evidence at the scene indicated one man served as lookout, while the other punched into the drug store, and opened the floor safe with a punch and drill set.

Finerman told officers he had checked his store at approximately 8 p. m., Saturday, and again at midnight, when he looked through the window. The burglary, reported at approximately 9:54 a. m. Sunday, is believed to have occurred after midnight and before dawn Sunday.

$3,000 Damage Caused by Fire

Damage estimated at $3,000 was caused by a roof fire Saturday afternoon at the Ray Sorum residence, 401 West Merito Place, fire department officials reported.

The loss was kept down by the use of salvage covers inside the house while the blaze was fought, and then salvage covers were spread over the damaged roof due to inclement weather.

The fire was started by a spark from a chimney, firemen said.

Britain Attacks Russia at U. N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — Britain, calling Russia "the greatest oppressor of our day," charged today that the Soviet Union had forcibly taken over 22 million people since 1939 while 500 million formerly under British rule had achieved independence.

Dog owners in the unincorporated area of Riverside County were warned today that dog and kennel licenses must be obtained by Wednesday, or a penalty of $1.50 will be added to the regular price.

License fees are $3 for male dogs and spayed female dogs, and $5 for unspayed female dogs. Kennels must pay $5 for five to 10 dogs, $10 for 11 to 20 dogs, and $20 for more than 20 dogs.

Licenses may be obtained locally at the Palm Springs Health Center, 3120 Civic Drive, or the Indio Health Center, 46-269 Oasis Street.

Eight Desert Area Items Set For Planners

Eight Desert area items will come before the Riverside County Planning Commission at its meeting at 10 a. m., Tuesday, at the county courthouse in Riverside, including four public hearings.

Hearings scheduled are:

CHANGE OF ZONE request of Gagnon Co. for M-3 to R-3 in the Thousand Palms area, for property located on the west side of Desert Flower Drive between Ramon Road and El Centro Way, 1:45 p. m.

Request of Albert Canizales and Joe Hammock for a go-cart track in the Blythe area, 2:45 p. m.

CHANGE OF ZONE Case No. 187 on commission initiative for Bermuda Dunes District, from I-W-2 to R-1, 4 p. m.

Change of zone application of Edward P. Lyons from R-1 to R-2 in Cathedral City - Palm Desert District, 4:15 p. m.

8 Units Fight Blaze

WHITEWATER — Fire fanned by brisk cold winds destroyed the Sheppard's Restaurant here in the pre-dawn hours today, as units from eight state Division of Forestry stations fought to save rear portions of the building.

The blaze on the roof of the building was first spotted by a passing truck driver at 4 a. m., who signaled an attendant at an adjacent service station. The Desert Sun was told this morning.

EARLIER, A COOK had attempted to extinguish a blaze in an overheated kitchen flue with a fire extinguisher. Later, two customers whose names were not available at press time tried in vain to fight the roof blaze with a garden hose.

The Desert Hot Springs fire station was called at approximately 4 a. m. from the service station adjoining the cafe. An observer reported the only telephone in the cafe was locked in the office.

UNITS ROLLED from Desert Hot Springs, Cathedral City, Beaumont, Cherry Valley, North Palm Springs, Thousand Palms, San Jacinto and Calimesa, to fight the blaze until it was brought under control at approximately 8 a. m. The dining room front corner posts had collapsed at about 5:20 a. m.

Firemen were still on the scene at 10:45 a. m., smothering the smoldering debris in water, and seeking clues to the probable cause of the blaze. No cause report was available from the Division of Forestry, pending completion of reports from the eight units represented.

Damage estimates on the building had not been tabulated by 11 a. m., but fire fighters reported that portions of the kitchen, office, and a storage room was all that remained standing of the large building. Totally destroyed were the coffee shop and main dining room.

Kennedy Visits Wife, Son Today

WASHINGTON — President-elect John F. Kennedy paid a 25-minute visit to his wife and baby son today. He reported that both are "fine, very good."

BY U. S. COURT OF APPEALS

Apalachin Court Verdict Reversed

NEW YORK — The U. S. Court of Appeals today reversed the conviction and sentences of 20 delegates to the Apalachin, N. Y., underworld convention of Nov. 14, 1957. The men had been charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice.

In the opinion of the three-judge panel, "There is nothing in the record of the trial to show that any violation of federal or state law took place or was planned at the gathering..."

THE 20 DELEGATES to the so-called "hoodlums convention" were sentenced last spring to prison terms running from three to five years and 13 of them were fined $10,000 each.

The men were freed in bail pending their appeal. The decision today upset two years of efforts by federal law enforcement agencies, which had sought to discover the reason for the conclave at Apalachin.

ALTHOUGH MANY theories had been advanced, including that the meeting had been called to punish members of the Mafia underworld organization, the government was not able to prove it.

The ruling was a major reversal to the Justice Department's new strategy against alleged crime syndicates. This strategy had been to prosecute for criminal conspiracy in cases where suspected syndicate leaders jointly refused to answer questions on grounds of self-incrimination.

The Apalachin case was the first application of this legal concept and today's ruling was the first appellate test.

TANKS CALLED OUT TO STOP RIOTERS

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI) — The government rolled out tanks today in front of the presidential palace as a precaution against leftist students and agitators rampaging through downtown Caracas in the fourth, and worst day of anti-government demonstrations.

President Romulo Betancourt held an emergency meeting with his cabinet and decreed the partial suspension of constitutional guarantees — a move that enables the army to move freely and quickly against the wild disorders.

RIFLE FIRE crackled all day throughout the downtown areas of the capital city and police said seven officers had been wounded so far today by persons shooting from the rooftops. Twenty-five demonstrators were reported hurt today.

The demonstrations started early today when students tried to crash through police guards to schools closed after three days of anti-Betancourt demonstrations. The disorders spread rapidly as police used rifles and tear gas in a vain effort to get things under control.

AS THE DISORDERS grew in

One Injured In Car Accident

INDIO — A 21-year-old Monterey Park man received serious injuries at 4:15 p. m., Sunday, when his compact car skidded off the Twentynine Palms Highway and overturned several times 270 feet north of the Riverside county line, the California Highway Patrol reported today.

William Mandel, 21, passenger in a car driven by his 21 year old wife, Celia Mary, was injured when Mrs. Mandel lost control of the vehicle after passing a truck, the CHP said.

from it. The woman was Riverside County's only traffic fatality of the long, four-day Thanksgiving holiday. Benzing is still in serious condition in Desert Hospital today. (P. S. Newsphoto)

Woman, 44, Who Wed Teen-Ager Seeking Lawyer

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (U) — A 44-year-old mother of 10 children sought an attorney today to defend her against charges that she contributed to the delinquency of a minor by eloping with him.

Mrs. Susan Elizabeth Young of nearby Harborside was released without having to post any bail Friday, and her arraignment in Municipal Court was postponed until she finds a lawyer.

"I'M GLAD THIS is out in the open, said Mrs. Young. She is pregnant by Robert Buchanan, 16, a student at Chula Vista High School.

Mrs. Young said she and Robert met when he visited her house last summer to see her 19-year-old son, Robert, and that they ran away and were married Oct. 28 in Tijuana, Mexico.

The twice divorced Mrs. Young said, however, that the marriage license which was to be mailed to them has yet to arrive.

"THE 'MARRIAGE' AS far as we are concerned is not legal," said Sheriff's Sgt. Robert Majors. Mrs. Young commented "I'll marry him here if the courts let me."

Buchanan was too young to give his consent to be married, said Majors.

He added, "They say they are in love with each other."

MRS. YOUNG WAS jailed last week when deputies received an anonymous telephone call about the romance.

Buchanan also was held briefly in Juvenile Hall and then turned over to the custody of his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Buchanan of nearby Chula Vista. The Buchanans refused to comment Friday.

WOMEN GET THEIR WAY ON THIS ONE

This is just what you might have expected, as any husband can tell you.

Horace W. Brower, president of the All-Year Club, reported results of a survey to find out which member of the family decides most of the tourist vacation trips to Southern California.

You've already guessed the answer. The woman, of course.

But she doesn't have as wide a margin as you'd expect. Of 100 trips, 35 were made at the suggestion of the woman. Pop was sort of a secondary powerhouse, with 33. Nine were joint decisions. The kids were a factor only three times. The rest were for a variety of reasons.

SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL, now recovering from a back injury, looks forward to his 86th birthday on Nov. 30. Doctors have indicated that despite his extreme age, his recovery from the new ailment has been remarkable. (UPI Telephoto)

HE'S 86 ON NOV. 30

Churchill Nearing 86th Birthday

By ROBERT MUSEL
LONDON (U) — There were so many parties and balls that gay social season of 1874 you could hardly blame Victorian society for being only mildly interested in a birth announcement in The Times: "On the 30th Nov., at Blenheim Palace, the Lady Randolph Churchill, prematurely, of a son."

NONE OF THOSE WHO read it could have guessed that the 15-word notice was the opening sentence of the life story of one of the greatest men of his time.

Sir Winston Churchill, the premature baby of the announcement, celebrates his 86th birthday this Nov. 30, the world's most honored man.

In his long life he has triumphed over all his opponents — except time. And, according to a friend, the indomitable old warrior is showing even that final enemy the same brand of courage that helped him save his nation and the Allies in World War II.

AT 80, AFTER TWO strokes and three heart attacks plus numerous bouts of pneumonia and other illnesses, his friends feared Churchill was entering into the decline of old age.

Six years later he walks more firmly, he has discarded his glasses except for occasional wear, his appetite for food and wine is still good, his general health "remarkable" — considering his age and medical history.

He has written himself into the millionaire class so he no longer writes for profit. But he is intensely interested in what happens to his works and he is looking forward to seeing the television films made from his memoirs of World War II by the American Broadcasting Company and the BBC.

HE STILL OCCASIONALLY attends the House of Commons—the last survivor of the legislators who served Queen Victoria.

Sir Winston will mark his birthday with his usual family party for his four children — Randolph, Mary, Diana and Sarah — and as many of his 10 grandchildren as can attend. Lady Churchill, 75, persuaded him to spend his birthday at home this year as she did last.

The older he gets the more Sir Winston wants to travel. He made two long cruises this year in the Adriatic and Mediterranean on the yacht of his friend, oil-tanker millionaire Aristotle Onassis and twice spent long holidays in Monte Carlo at one of Onassis' hotels.

SIR WINSTON, WHO holds 150 major honors — military medals, foreign decorations, honorary degrees, freedoms of cities and countries in addition to the Nobel Prize — has his eye on a distinction he would like to add to his list. It is the longevity record for British prime ministers. William Ewart Gladstone died at 89. Churchill will surpass him if he lives to 1964.

One wonders what the society leaders of 1874 would say if they knew that the bedroom in which the premature baby was born is now one of Britain's top tourist draws.

Investors See No Mandate for JFK Policy Shift

By PAUL H. MacGREGOR
E. F. Hutton & Co.

The post-election strength was somewhat mystifying until the election returns were analyzed. While Mr. Kennedy was elected, it was quite clear that he received no mandate for his liberal policies. Instead, it was a mandate to steer a middle-of-the-road course, the type of government we have had during the Eisenhower administration.

Perhaps a greater contribution to investors' confidence is the make-up of the new Congress. In the House of Representatives the Republicans made a net gain of 21 seats and a net gain of 2 seats in the Senate. But of greater importance is the likelihood of a coalition between the Southern Democrats and the Republicans which could easily block any legislation deemed too liberal.

FOR INSTANCE, the new Senate will be composed of 64 Democrats and 36 Republicans. However, of the 64 Democrats, 24 are from the Solid South (including Oklahoma and Texas). Therefore, a Southern Democratic - Republican coalition would give a 60-40 ratio in favor of a fairly conservative Congress. In addition, most of the important Senatorial committees will be headed by Southern Democrats due to seniority.

I am not at all pessimistic about the next four years.

IN THE PAST decade, the bulk of capital spending was directed toward expansion of productive facilities. Now that we have surplus capacity, I think capital expenditures in the next few years will be directed toward modernization. In other words, automation will take over in a big way.

Undoubtedly, the $1-1/4 billion to be spent by General Motors in 1961 will be more for modernization than expansion. Automation has proven an effective answer to high wages. Corporations failing to modernize plants will fall behind, in my opinion.

NEWPORT NEWS Shipbuilding may not fully qualify for standards set for stocks to be suggested by this letter due to its cyclical nature, but its bright prospects, its low price-earnings ratio of about 9, and probably yield of near 6 per cent (based on regular $1.60, plus $1 special, which seems likely) appear to justify its inclusion.

In my opinion, the Navy will place great emphasis on the Polaris submarine in the years ahead, a point favoring increased business for the company.

EARLY IN 1960, unfinished shipbuilding work consisted of the prototype nuclear - powered aircraft-carrier Enterprise, a nuclear-powered attack submarine; three nuclear-powered Polaris missile-firing submarines; and numerous commercial vessels. The present backlog of business provides a sizeable scheduled volume of production through 1961 and 1962.

EMBARGO 'FAILS', IS CUBAN CLAIM

HAVANA, Cuba — Cuban officials said Saturday the United States embargo will not cripple the island's sugar mills because of superior Soviet technology.

This was in sharp contrast to reports from Cuban provinces that the American ban on spare machinery parts will cause trouble during the forthcoming sugar grinding season.

SOURCES SAID THE mills already have run out of replacement gaskets for heavy duty compressors and hardwood rings are being fashioned as makeshift substitutes to be used when the grinding starts in January.

Similar gaskets are being used in compressors at the Texaco oil refinery in Santiago, which is now operated by the government, and workers are reported to be sabotaging the rings by picking defective wood. Sugar mill operators fear they also will be sabotaged in the same manner.

ALFREDO MENENDEZ, general manager of the sugar mill administration, indicated that Soviet bloc technicians will solve the spare parts dilemma in the American - built mills.

"We are merely conditioned by propaganda to believe if a product is not American, it is no good," Menendez said.

THE LACK OF machinery parts could have an adverse effect on Cuba because the national economy depends in a large measure on the sugar industry.

Mistake was considered evil by early Christians who believed it had been the "forbidden fruit" of the Garden of Eden.

PS Mothers Urged to See Cancer Film

Dr. Elliott Asks All Village Women To Attend Movie

"Mothers are the alert, conscientious guardians of their family's health — but sometimes they're too busy to guard their own!" according to Dr. W. H. Elliott, chairman of the Palm Springs Chapter of the American Cancer Society, working on this week's free "saturation" showing of the American Cancer Society's documentary film about uterine cancer.

Dr. Elliott said that mothers are being particularly urged to see the film, "Time and Two Women," because, "Although uterine cancer can strike anyone, it should be of particular concern to mothers because their health is vital, not just to themselves, but to the members of their families who are dependent upon them."

HE SAID THAT "Time and Two Women" will show busy mothers how forming the habit of a regular yearly health checkup — including a pelvic examination and a cell examination test — can protect their general health at the same time that it helps to guard them from uterine cancer.

Dr. Elliott explained that the term "uterine cancer" covers both (1) cancer of the cervix, which is the neck of the uterus and (2) cancer of the body of the uterus, which is usually called the "womb."

Approximately 75 percent of uterine cancer is cancer of the cervix, which cancer experts feel could be almost eliminated as a cause of death if all women acted on the message of "Time and Two Women," Dr. Elliott said.

He said that cancer of the cervix is almost 100 percent curable if it is treated in time, and that the cell examination test makes diagnosis possible months and even years before symptoms develop.

DR. ELLIOTT STRESSED that although uterine cancer strikes most often after the age of 35, no age group is free from it, and that pilot tests of the cell examination technique indicate that early cancer of the cervix is much higher in the 20 - 30 age group than had been suspected.

Presented by the Palm Springs Branch of the American Cancer Society, the educational material is being co - sponsored here by the Palm Springs Women's Club, American Association of University Women, Order of Eastern Star, Women's Auxiliary of Desert Hospital, Desert Does, Sisterhood of Temple Isaiah, Soroptimists and the Welfare and Friendly Aid Society.

Record for the entry from the most distant point went to Mrs. L. Bates of Brierfield, England, who heard about the contest while touring America and submitted her entry upon her return home.

Special to The Desert Sun — SAN BERNARDINO — "Citrus Wonderland" will be the theme of the 1961 National Orange Show here April 20 through 30, it was determined this week by judges who spent hours poring through the more than 3,000 entries.

The winning theme was submitted by Mrs. Louise Rickert, 325 La Paloma Street, Redlands, and brought her the $100 first prize.

ACCORDING TO J. W. Snyder, chairman of the theme committee, the selection was made on the basis that the "Citrus Wonderland" theme will be a "workable one for all segments of the 46th National Orange Show, including community feature exhibits, flower show, entertainment and commercial features and special displays throughout the grounds."

In keeping with Orange Show policy, emphasis in 1961 will be placed on expanded citrus exhib-

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, Nov. 28, the 333rd day of the year with 33 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mars and Mercury.

The evening stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1863, the nation observed the first Thanksgiving Day set aside by national proclamation.

In 1866, celebrated American actor David Warfield was born.

In 1893, America's first auto race began on a 35 - mile course from Chicago's Jackson Park to Evanston, Ill.

In 1929, Lt. Cmdr. Richard Byrd took off from his base in Little America to attempt a flight over the South Pole.

A thought for today: French writer Alexandre Dumas the younger said: "Business? It's quite simple. It's other people's money."

Unfortunate Campaign Incident

One of the most unfortunate incidents of the presidential election and its post-mortems is the responsibility heaped on the shoulders of Dr. Norman Vincent Peale for the action of a group of Protestant ministers who met in Washington, D. C., on September 7 and joined in a statement released to the press opposing the election of a Catholic to the highest office in the land.

Although Dr. Peale had no part in calling the meeting or preparation of the statement attended but one morning session of the group and then notified them the following day that he would not be associated with them, he has been labeled as the leader of the group ever since in newspaper and magazine references to the incident.

The New York minister and author, who vacations in Palm Springs every winter, had arrived from a European trip only the day before and would not even have attended the meeting of the Protestant group had he not previously arranged to be in Washington at that time on another matter. He knew a few of the ministers—said he thought well of them—and consented to attend their meeting. When he emerged, he was surrounded by reporters and from then on the group was called the "Peale group" because he was the most prominent minister among them. Little reference has been made to any of the others, and Dr. Peale has never named any of them.

Dr. Peale admitted that he should have known better than to attend a meeting whose purpose he knew so little about. But it is unfair to place the entire responsibility on him. He said that he certainly had no intention of becoming involved in a political campaign and, above all, in the religious issue. He has been an active worker in the inter-faith field for many years.

While it was a serious mistake that he made, the mitigating circumstances were never explained. It is only fair to him that the millions that he has helped so much through his sermons, books and lectures should know that he was not the leader of the group at all.

Guessing at Challenges of 1960s

NEW YORK — Sen. Jack Kennedy campaigned and won the Presidency on the "Challenge of the 1960's." He did not spell out that challenge. So let's have a guess at what this decade might bring. Here goes:

A stepping-up of the already robust Soviet invasion into what we considered our exclusive province of foreign aid. The Kremlin will be more discriminating in its largesse and plant aid only where it has the best chances of blooming.

THE PROBLEM of working out, if possible, some kind of arrangement with Khrushchev (and presumably his successor) which will reduce the chance of an accidental H-bomb war without forfeiting the honor of the U. S. and the free or neutral nations.

The question of how best to deal with Red China, which, barring further atrocities, soon will be voted into the United Nations whether we like it or not.

The race to man the moon, which will far surpass the current race to put a man in orbit.

THE '60's, I think, will see us reach the comprehension that we've got to stop expecting simple, tear-stained gratitude from nations we aid. We will make more of an effort to understand them while dealing a handout. We've sunk a billion dollars and more into Laos, Cambodia and Thailand and vast sums into South Vietnam, for example, only to find them restless, neutral or pro-Communist, and the average person just about as miserable as before.

A reorganization of our system of contacting people. Through much of the underdeveloped world, the attitude of our diplomatic representatives is little different than that of the British in the time of Cecil Rhodes. Or Henry VIII.

THE RUSSIANS have opened what might be called a "Peoples' Gap," which must be closed in the '60's or it never will be in the '70's or it never will be in the '80's or it never will be in the '90's or it never will be in the 20th century, which they are assigned, seem to enjoy living with them, eat their food, follow their customs. Our folks, by tradition and fastidious personal preference, find it difficult to mingle — except at intra-mural cocktail parties back at the American compound.

The '60's will bring the first real challenge and probably the death of the Electoral College, that outmoded and insulting buffer between the people and the highest office in the land.

THE NEW NATIONS of the Afro-Asian block, to the consternation of millions of generous and liberal Americans, will welcome Soviet aid just as eagerly as they'll welcome our aid. Labor will demand and get a 32-hour week, at more money. Coal will become too costly to burn as a fuel, and yield additional fruits in the way of by-products.

THE GASMETER man will be replaced by the Geiger Counter man, thus stimulating a whole new font of bad jokes. The question of shielding dangerous rays from atomic reactors will be solved, and everything except baby carriages will be atomic powered.

TV Westerns, and all their heroic gunmen, will disappear from the nation's screens after a Presidential edict demanding that only live ammunition be used. They will be replaced by full-length stomach acid commercials.

PAY - TV, WHICH grossed $2,400,000 for the Patterson-Johansson fight (as opposed to the $800,000 the fight actually drew "Live.") will sweep the nation. It will result in $25,000 title fights, world series for which the sponsors will pay $15,000,000, with comparably high pay-offs to players, pension funds, minor leagues — for breeding purposes — and so forth.

A single performance of a new movie or a Broadway hit, sent through the land electronically, will gross more than the movie could do in a year of showings and the hit could do in ten years at the Ethel Barrymore Theatre.

CARS WILL GET smaller and people will be forced to diet into them. Cigarettes will be struck like matches, and perhaps strike back. Somebody will come up with a "bleach pill" but the Beauty Parlor Lobby will grind it into dust. A manufacturer of a 900-calorie diet drink will clean up by including in each can a bone on which to gnaw.

The passenger version of the Mach 3 B-70 will enable a person to have lunch in New York, then fly to San Francisco for breakfast.

WE'LL BEAT OUR remaining Fort Knox gold into ear-rings, go on the Uranium Standard, and use the stuff to turn our wheels of industry all the time it is supporting the currency and bolstering overseas trade. And inevitably:

Greater and greater dependence on UN, the dawn of the Age of Solar Power, the passing of most of today's elder Statesmen, fuller utilization of farm surpluses in industry, widespread and perhaps bloody spread of school desegregation.

The only things that will remain the same will be love, Archie Moore, and the 30-minute wait for your suitcase after a supersonic flight.

Letters to the Editor

The Desert Sun

For years we-two had spent at least a fortnight annually on some desert. Sometimes it was a camel trip into the Sahara toward Timbuctu. Again it was in the snake-shaped desert between the Andes and Peru's guano islands.

Once, en route to French Africa, we discussed child welfare with some Paris social service workers. We mentioned the tonic effects of desert winter sunshine. A physician suggested a study of Villard de Lans. We went there in 1932. This children's winter sunstation is in the mountains behind Grenoble. Many, rich or poor, needed simply sunshine. Usually it was a fortnight's vacation. In some cases it was extended to twice, thrice that term. Many returned completely restored.

My Sweetheart long had dreamed of eventually a string of children's Sunstations from Coachella Desert across Arizona and New Mexico to Southwest Texas. One specialist in rheumatic fever, also children's arthritis, said her plan annually could save thousands from going crippled thru life.

Her suggestion was to first utilize Anza Desert State Park for a demonstration sunstation. She thought of winter outings for children from furnace-heated dwellings of Chicago, Detroit, New York...

During World War II we again had two winters at Palm Springs. Watching bombers arrive from the factory, she exclaimed: "If we can spend thusly killing people, why not for combating disease?"

Sincerely,
C. M. Goethe

The Desert Sun

On a recent visit to your desert country I was impressed with the beauty of your mountains and the wonderful climate you live in. But what appalled me was what man had done to mar its beauty. It seemed to me that the road from Palm Springs to Los Angeles was one solid acre of beer cans and trash.

I know there are fines for throwing rubbish onto the highway but apparently something more has to be done. Why wouldn't it be a good idea for the state to conduct a crash clean up program involving school children, prisoners and whomever they could get to work at it. When it was once clean again it might encourage motorists to keep it that way.

Sincerely,
Frances C. Thompson

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

We're on the last lap
Don't procrastinate,
If you put it off
You may be too late.

That's Christmas I'm talking about — shopping, mailing. Counting up on the calendar I find there are 22 shopping days left. If you are the one who waits until Dec. 24, make that 23 shopping days.

FURTHER EVIDENCE that the desert area around Palm Springs is the Winter Golf Capital of the World was introduced this week by Mike Souchak, fourth in money winnings among the pros for 1960 who is planning to trek across the country from his home in Durham, N. C., to play in the $5,000 Southern California Open at Indian Wells Country Club this week. Souchak has already hauled down more than $29,000 in pro tournaments.

SO HE DOESN'T need the prize money at Indian Wells, he's coming because he likes the desert area, Indian Wells and Eddie Susalla.

Ken Venturi, the second money winner among the pros, is also coming. He has more than $46,000 to date.

So the second and fourth money winners will be on hand for the Open.

INCIDENTALLY, Arnold Palmer, top money winner of the year by a wide margin, got his start here in Palm Springs last spring when he won the first annual Palm Springs Golf Classic, richest event in golfdom which will be renewed on five local courses, Feb. 1-5, 1961.

And the chances are said good that Dwight D. Eisenhower, ex-president by that time, may be in the gallery. Might even get into the Pro-Am which follows the Open.

THE NATION'S FOREMOST amateur golfer, Ike is looking forward to his first chance in nine years to see the Masters' Championship at Augusta, Ga., in April.

Hitherto, crowds of 40,000 at the Masters' kept him away for security reasons but in April, he won't be president, surrounded by a phalanx of bodyguards.

And since he likes the Palm Springs area, as well as the Augusta club, speculation is that he'll be around Feb. 1-5.

WITH CHRISTMAS closing in on us, as noted at the head of this piece, you had better enjoy this week right up to the hilt.

It is National Prosperity Week and by the time you have all of the kids taken care of, the relatives and the people who gave you something last year but whom you forget, the merchants will be the prosperous ones.

Enjoy prosperity while you still can.

It is more blessed to give than to receive — but try to tell some kid that this time of the year.

Program for Sale

HOLLYWOOD — Bob Newhart who's ducking the noisy nightclubs he detests in favor of concert stands, ordered a program printed for sale in the lobbies of theatres he'll play. The lead article, by comedy writer Hal Kanter, is titled Why I Positively Hate Bob Newhart.

THE ANDREWS Sisters, long missing from the local scene despite their top toning talents, are ticketed to appear at a London saloon called The Talk of the Town for 12 weeks starting Dec. 5. They're also signed for several BBC-TV ventures.

Dan Duryea has finally broken free of the type-casting ties that almost wrecked his career. Heretofore cast as nothing but tough-talking Hollywood gangsters in movies, he will play an English convict in an Australian prison on U. S. Steel Hour's Jan. 25 episode, The Devil Makes Sunday.

ZANE GREY Theatre is on a family kick this season. Art Linkletter and son Jack have jotted to co-star in the series' Bible Man segment (it's young Linkletter's dramatic debut, incidentally, after all these years of pinchhitting as emcee of his dad's House Party and emceeing his own show). Previously, Danny Thomas and daughter Marlo signed for Honor Bright, same series.

The boys at Four Star thought up a good gag for Dick Powell's birthday party. They dug up some of his old recordings and played them over the loudspeaker. June Allyson wasn't there — and the rumors about the 15-year marriage of Dick and June are disheartening.

BRATS ARE bustin' out all over at Screen Gems. They've got Dennis the Menace rollin' and now they're trying to get TV series rights for a live version of the Peanut comic strip. Also on the agenda is a series on Mark Twain's Tom Sawyer and another kiddie caper called The Daring Deeds of Donny Dru.

Four Star is looking for a new title for The Freshman, its new series starring Gertrude Berg and Sir Cedric Hardwicke. They've gotta change it — Harold Lloyd holds the copyright on The Freshman and won't let go of it because he plans shooting a remake of his 1925 silent picture hit.

If Khrushchev had his way, says Allan Hersholt, the U. S. would have a 51st State — the State of Fear.

HOLLYWOOD HOTSTUFF — Fox is freezing Sonja Henie's old ice rink at the studio in all the colors of the rainbow for Carol Heiss to skate on in Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. In Technicolor of course.

I visited Shirley MacLaine on the set of The Spinster at M-G-M. She loomed haggard, thanks to make-up magic, for her tragic role. "I'm an old maid in this one, I'll go Oriental in my next, My Geisha. I'll be a prostitute in Irma la Douce, a lesbian in The Children's Hour — and after that, who knows? There's nothing left but my personal life and that's dull because my husband's out of town most of the time!"

JACK HAWKINS, also in The Spinster, was being very jittery over a jug of java, this being his first time in Hollywood. He quieted down enough to tell me that he'll produce his own picture next, Whistle Down the Wind. It's a thriller written by Mary Hayley Bell and starring Mary's daughter, Hayley Mills.

John Huston calls Montgomery Clift "Stormy" for short these days. Not because Monty is stormy but because he was so cooperative throughout the shooting of The Misfits, starring the late Clark Gable and the very difficult Marilyn Monroe. The left-handed compliment is typically Hustonian.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I've been wanting to write you for over a year but just couldn't get up the nerve. I am in love with my best girlfriend's husband. I am married, 23 and have two small children. I know he loves me for I see the love in his eyes when he looks at me. Call me silly if you want to, but I love him even though I have never kissed him. I have nothing against my husband, but I know I am in love with this man. What should I do?

FORBIDDEN LOVE

DEAR FORBIDDEN: What you feel is not "love" — it is physical attraction. You had better learn to fight it or it will destroy your marriage. If necessary, terminate the friendship with your girlfriend so that you will not be in this man's company. Forbidden fruit may taste sweeter, but it rots fast.

DEAR ABBY: I read in your column that a teen-age sitter is advocating a "sitters' union." I think her proposed $3.00 an hour for "sitting" with one ill-mannered child is too high. I am a school teacher and earn about $2.00 an hour for "sitting" with 35 ill-mannered children. Ordinary sitters are not required to teach, grade papers, do lunchroom duty or playground duty, confer with 35 sets of parents or attend PTA meetings. Nor are they asked to handle insurance money, lunch money or savings stamps.

I think ordinary sitters are overpaid at 50c an hour, especially when the child sleeps, leaving them free to raid the ice box, talk on the phone and watch TV.

Serling's Three Loves

WASHINGTON — The three loves of Robert J. Serling are, in the order of their intensity the Washington Redskins, jet airplanes and his younger brother.

This might indicate to you that Bob is a typical 11-year-old American boy, and in some respects he is. In other respects, he is an untypical 42-year-old American man.

SERLING HOLDS the distinction of being the only five-foot-six-inch fan to have his shoulder dislocated by a football thrown by Sammy Baugh when Baugh was playing quarterback for the local professional team.

I won't relate here the circumstances under which this happened because you probably would not believe it. Suffice to say, it is Serling's proudest athletic achievement. I understand that he framed the X-ray picture of the dislocation.

WHEN SERLING is not loving the Redskins, jet airplanes and his brother, he labors in the vineyards of United Press International as manager of the Washington Radio bureau.

I bring him to your attention now because he is the latest Washington newsman to succumb to that disease I discovered in the dictionary recently — "Scribbendi cacoethes," the itch for writing.

HE HAS WRITTEN a book, published a few days ago, about his No. 2 love. Entitled "The Probable Cause," it is all about airplanes, why they crash and, more important, why they fly. Serling's friends were pleased when he undertook the project because they felt it would take his mind off the great loss he suffered several years ago. I refer to the findings by the U.S. Air Force that there are no such things as "flying saucers."

SERLING HAD been a fervent believer in flying saucers and he naturally was shaken up by the Air Force report. The success of his brother, Red Serling, as a television playwright eased his disappointment somewhat, but he still was inclined to brood a lot.

I suspect that deep down he still believes in flying saucers. At least, he still believes in the Redskins, who long ago torpedoed the credulity of other football fans.

IN HIS BOOK, Serling examines with tender loving care the advances and failures of commercial air travel in the jet age. It obviously is the work of a confirmed aviation buff.

Some of the chapters relate in meticulous detail the events leading up to an airliner crash. I recommend that you read them while lying flat on the floor. I tried it in an easy chair and found myself feeling around for the seat belt.

THE BOOK IS in some ways a testimonial to the eternal quest for air safety, and also to the stability of Serling's stomach. I don't see how he wrote it without getting air sick.

In his acknowledgements, Serling claims to have received editorial assistance from several airline stewardesses. But on this point the odds are good that he was bragging a bit.

Seven flimsy dwellings on the reservation, condemned earlier this year as "unfit for human habitation," were razed Sunday by city officials under jurisdiction granted in a recently enacted federal law. One of the houses was demolished, and six destroyed by fire. The action followed long efforts by city and county to rid the area of buildings which constituted a menace to safety and health.

Entertainer to Appear at Dinner Club

In keeping with the spirit of the holiday season, members of the Desert Dinner Club are in for an evening of laughter and enjoyment next Thursday at the Riviera Hotel, when a mirth-provoking tale of an Englishman's adventures in the America he adopted in a case of love at first sight, will be told.

Teller of the tale is John Pettley, who was about as English as Oxford and Eton. Born in London, schooled at the University of London, and in service for his England in the Atlantic and Southeast Asia theatres of war, Pettley was sent to America in 1946 to study the application of meteorology to movie making at the California Institute of Technology.

That was the trip that started to separate Pettley from England and make him an American by choice. He returned to England with a Master's degree, but quickly came back to America, in 1948, to settle down.

Joining the faculty of the Webb School at Claremont, and acquiring an American wife (now a family of four), he began living the customs of all Americans. The humorous incidents and experiences he ran into have been woven into an address he chooses to call "An Englishman Looks at America."

The black tie dinner is timed for 8 p.m. promptly, preceded by a social half hour of introductions, hors d'oeuvres and refreshments.

Save time by keeping needles, thread and other repair items near the ironing board. That way, mending can be done immediately.

To keep from having to search for matching pillow slips, fold them in pairs when you iron them.

Clubwomen to Habla Espanol

The nucleus of a Spanish Class was formed at the Four Hundred last Thursday when Mrs. Herbert Burns invited Palm Springs Woman's Club members and friends who are interested in learning conversational Spanish, to meet at her home to discuss plans for weekly sessions.

Mike Atlee who teaches Spanish at Palm Valley School and has spent much time in Mexico and Spain, aroused enthusiasm and ambition among his students when he launched directly into his conversational techniques, giving them hope that they too might learn the language well enough for practical purposes.

Anyone interested in joining the class which will be held in the Club House every Wednesday from 4 to 5:30 may call Mrs. Duane Beckwith, Chairman at FA4-1685.

WOMEN of The Desert

Hildy Crawford, Society Editor

Monday, Nov. 28, 1960 THE DESERT SUN Page 5

YOUNG AND LOVELY coloratura soprano Judith Lynn Cogan will be a feature entertainer at the Pink Carnation Ball at the Riviera Hotel next Saturday night. This is sponsored by Palm Springs AVCCF Auxiliary and is their big annual money-raising event, with proceeds to go to support the Foundation and the hospital, which is now under construction.

Chocolate Mint Rich Pudding

Chocolate mint pudding is a rich dessert to round off a light meal. Stir ½ cup of slivered blanched almonds with teaspoon of cooking oil in a shallow baking pan. Roast about 10 minutes in a 300-degree oven, stirring once or twice.

In a saucepan, combine one 4-ounce package of chocolate pudding mix, 1 tablespoon each of cocoa and instant coffee powder. Stir in 2 cups of milk and cook, stirring until thick and smooth. Blend in 2 tablespoons of butter or margarine and cool. Stir in half the almonds.

Whip 1 cup of heavy cream stiff with mint extract to taste, a drop of green food coloring and cup of sifted powdered sugar. Alternate layers of pudding and whipped cream in 6 sherbert or parfait glasses ending with whipped cream and topping with remaining almonds. Garnish with fresh mint sprigs.

Casserole for Cool Weather

Ham and onions with noodles is a good cool weather dish. Sauté 2 cups of sliced onion over medium heat 5 to 10 minutes in 1½ tablespoons of butter or margarine, melted. Stir occasionally. Add one 1-pound ham steak, and cook over medium heat until browned on both sides. Lower heat and cook, stirring occasionally, 10 minutes. Add 1 cup of sour cream. Mix well and serve over 8 ounces (about 4 cups) of wide egg noodles, cooked until tender, and drained. Serves 4.

Pickle Bird

Two cups of leftover holiday turkey make a meal for four to six persons with this pickle-turkey combination. Blend 1 eight-ounce package of softened cream cheese with 1 cup of milk. Add 3 cups of diced cooked potatoes, 2 cups of diced cooked turkey, cup each of chopped sweet fresh cucumber pickles and finely chopped celery, ¼ pound of bacon, cooked and crumbled, and ¼ teaspoon of sage. Cook 15 minutes over low heat. Stir occasionally.

Plan Series of Luncheons to Raise Funds

Members of Palm Springs Auxiliary of Children's Home Society of California plan a series of desert luncheon - card parties as part of their fund-raising project for the year.

The first of these parties was held Tuesday at the Burton Way home of Mrs. James A. Fitzpatrick.

Attractive centerpieces of red and white flowers were used to decorate the tables, and refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, consisted of crab-meat salad, hot buttered rolls, lemon pie and coffee.

Members and guests attending were president Mrs. John A. Michelson, Mrs. Tony Rose, Mrs. Robert S. Dorman, Mrs. Frank Gaudin, Mrs. John Fredericksen, Mrs. Joe Ranfro, and Mrs. Kelvin K. Larsen.

Desert Riders Will Elect

When Desert Riders hold their annual meeting on December 13, there will be a report from the nominating committee, which consists of Mac MacDonald, D. V. Garstin and Jane Hodd, and election of officers.

Tomorrow, the riders will ride to the Relay Station, with breakfast at 9 a.m.

T. V. Notes

NEW YORK — Advocates of non-violence on television should be happy over the fact that, come January, a detective and a western series get ousted from NBC's Friday night lineup in favor of three situation comedies.

Of course, there are those who maintain that such comedy series can do as much violence to the public psyche as anything else.

Anyway, the one-hour "Dan Raven" detective show at 7:30 (EST) will be replaced by "Happy," which helped fill in Perry Como's spot during his vacation last summer and proved to be anything but a happy choice, and a newcomer, "One Happy Family." The former features a "talking baby," and the latter concerns a pair of newlyweds and in-law meddling.

"Westerner" vacates the 8:30 (EST) spot to be replaced by a series starring Nanette Fabray and Wendell Corey as man and wife. This is fashioned somewhat after Miss Fabray's own domestic-show business life, with assorted offspring providing complications.

AFTER SUNSET

Tony George Dug Club's Chessboard

By GEORGE LAINE

Palm Springs hospitality is fabled far and wide, but Tony George, tall, good-looking star of the CBS network's sensational new "Checkmate" series figured they'd gone too far with it.

Tony arrived here last Thursday and checked into the racquet club.

"IMAGINE MY reaction when they took me to a cottage and I found a huge chessboard on the lawn in front of my door," said George, smiling broadly. "My first thought was that they shouldn't have gone to all that trouble just for me."

"My second thought — after talking to Jan Lotz and Cliff Brown at the Chamber of Commerce — was different.

"The chessboard has been there for years."

TONY ISN'T AS naive as all that might sound. He's pro all the way, understands what you have to do to stay on top in the rugged TV battle for supremacy in the series categories.

How well he's managed to apply himself might best be gauged by noting that "Checkmate" is THE top-rated new show of the 60-61 season and had soared to second spot in Neilsen's all-embracing total ratings a week ago. (It's seen at 8:30 p.m., each Saturday, via KNXT-Channel 2 here.)

A FIRST GENERATION Italian, Tony came up the hard way. He took acting bits and did a salesman stunt side by side for longer than he likes to recall. (And it wasn't such an awful long time ago.)

He had a vital role in "The Untouchables" before signing off to star in the "Checkmate" and is now hesitant about doing other TV segments — or even movies — because of his desire to put everything he has into the "Checkmate" series.

And how has this success affected Tony?

"I WAS OVER AT Louise's Pantry and stood in line for an hour to get fed," he said. (Most of the Hollywood hotshots prefer to call their favorite restaurant, swirl into it, eat and evacuate.) "But the wait was worth it all."

Louise has the best cake pudding I ever ate," Tony leaned forward, confidentially, and whispered to your reporter: "I had two helpings."

At the Pantry, Tony heard a group of teen-agers discussing him.

"IT'S TONY GEORGE," said one. "Aw," replied another. "Yeh, it is," agreed still another. "Could we ask him for an autograph," another said warily. Tony leaned across the counter, whispered to the waitress: "tell the kid to ask me. I'm more excited than he is."

THIS CANDID OPENNESS carries through in Tony's choices of relaxation.

"I've really relaxed here in Palm Springs," he said. "I've gone swimming, sat in the sun, relaxed. I even played checkers with my business agent, Bud Curtis."

And how about that big chessboard in front of his cottage. "Chess?" he smiled a wry smile. "I don't play much chess anymore. It takes too much time."

TEDDY AND DOROTHY HART of Palm Springs and Hollywood are establishing Theater 90, an Equity legitimate playhouse operation, at 870 North Vine Street in Hollywood. The theater, which is now under construction, will seat 90 persons.

The Harts will present "The Potting Shed," a drama by Graham Greene, as their opening production early in January. Their policy will be to offer shows fresh from Broadway successes.

Teddy has appeared in a number of productions at the Palm Springs Playhouse as well as starred in numerous Broadway shows and motion pictures.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Strong turnout for an afternoon of dancing in the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel's first Sunday cocktail dance has prompted management to continue them . . . Another one — 3-5 p.m. — due next Sunday . . . Don't try to tune in "Amos 'n Andy" tonight . . . The longtime favorites are off the air . . . That's due, primarily, to switch in network policy although I've always thought that the idea of canned laughs and applause played the radio audience very cheaply . . .

"CHECKMATE?" NOPE. It's just Tony George, star of CBS-TV's "Checkmate" series having a little game with blonde Village cutie Diane Dumas. The action took place at the Racquet Club's king-sized outdoor chessboard which fronts the cottage in which the TV star resided during his Village visit. He plans to return in December. See "After Sun-Set." (Chamber of Commerce Photo)

Bermuda Dunes Golf Auxiliary Sets Tourney

A host of Southern California golf clubs will be represented in the first annual Bermuda Dunes Women's Golf Auxiliary Invitational Tournament at Bermuda Dunes Country Club Thursday and Friday, Dec. 1 and 2.

Altogether 105 distaff golfers are ready to tee off for the various honors offered by the 36-hole medal event, including overall low gross and low net.

Mrs. Alfred Berkman, president of the auxiliary, announced that the tourney has attracted low-handicap competitors from such clubs as the Riviera C.C. (Ruth McCullough, three-time California state champion), Los Angeles C.C. (Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. Paul Gardner), Tamarisk C.C. (Marge Kanrich), Hillcrest C.C. (Mrs. George Kelter) and El Camino C.C. (Mrs. Wilson Atkins).

A cocktail party and dinner-dance in Bermuda Dunes' spectacular "Top o' the Dune" clubhouse Thursday evening will be a tournament feature.

Prizes, which include cashmere sweaters trimmed with beaver and gold charms designed in the desert motif by trophy chairman Suzie Winston, will be distributed to winners in three classes late Friday afternoon.

Chamberlain, Guy Rodgers Lead Warriors to Win

LOS ANGELES — The combination of big Wilt Chamberlain and little Guy Rodgers led the Philadelphia Warriors to a 113-106 victory over the Los Angeles Lakers Sunday night in a delayed National Basketball Association game at the Sports Arena.

A crowd of 10,706 turned out for the game that was held up for more than an hour and a half because the Warriors were late in arriving. They were held up when their plane developed trouble before takeoff in Philadelphia.

Chamberlain scored 41 points, outdistancing the Lakers' Elgin Baylor, who scored 22. Baylor had only 7 at the half.

DRAKE ENTERS ROAD RACES IN LAS VEGAS

Bob Drake, second place winner in the 1960 Riverside Grand Prix, today entered the Las Vegas road races Dec. 10 and 11 at McCarran Field.

The noted Hollywood driver will pilot the famous "Ole Yaller MK II" — the same powerful machine in which he defeated Europe's best last month.

"Ole Yaller" has a monstrous 6300 cc Buick motor, about twice the size of a normal sports car. It's a backyard creation put together by Max Balchowsky, whose mechanical genius oftentimes bests the greatest factories in racing.

TODAY'S SHORTS

Relief Ace, Catcher Big Need of Giants

By HAL WOOD
United Press International
SAN FRANCISCO — Today's shorts:

The word from the San Francisco Giants front office is that the club wants: 1. A first class relief hurler; 2. A first class receiver. To get these men the club will gladly give up Johnny Antonelli, plus two or three other men. Everybody from Yogi Berra to Gus Triandos (a San Francisco boy now with the Baltimore Orioles) has been mentioned as the receiver wanted...

THE LOS ANGELES Chargers are doing better at the gate than most clubs in the new American Football League. In 10 games they have played to an average of 20,442. This includes, of course, a whopping big 42,000 gate in Dallas. The team is averaging 18,479 attendance per game at home, 21,751 on the road...

The chances are strong that the Oakland Raiders, who have been a box office flop at Kezar Stadium in San Francisco, will play their remaining three games in Candlestick Park, also in S.F. They already have approval from the park board. But the Giants won't like it...

IF HUMBOLDT State makes it to the NAIA championship playoffs in Florida, half the population of Eureka is expected to make the trip to the sunny South. That's the kind of fans they have in the Redwood Empire. A big portion of fans even followed the team when it went to Hawaii to play earlier this year—and that's just about as far away as Florida...

GRID HEROES ARE (JUST) born! You might call these two football heroes of the future "Muck" and "Mire" and then again you might call them John Engbretson, 11, and his brother, Jeff, 8, caught eating hot dogs after a grade school game at the Forbes Air Force Base at Topeka, Kan.

Demaret, Harrison in Senior

Eligible For Play Dec. 6-11

Competition in the fourth annual United States National Senior Open Golf Championship to be played on three desert area courses Dec. 6-11, will be tighter than ever. Johnny Dawson, tournament chairman, announced today.

Entered for the first time are Jimmy Demaret and E. J. "Dutch" Harrison, two well known names on the Professional Golfers Association tour. Both have passed the half-century mark in age and are eligible for the first time.

BOTH DEMARET and Harrison are expected to offer tough competition to Willie Goggin for the first place money. Goggin will be making a bid for his third consecutive United States National Senior Open title.

In all, 70 pros will journey from as far as Florida and Connecticut, and more than 300 amateurs from practically every state will be testing their skill over the three challenging desert courses — Bermuda Dunes, Eldorado and La Quinta — for cash and prizes totaling $20,000.

PLAY WILL START on Dec. 6, with an 18-hole pro-amateur event over the three courses. The 54-hole competition will be played Dec. 8-10, alternating on the three courses, and the lowest 80 scorers and ties will meet in the final round on Sunday, Dec. 11, at Bermuda Dunes.

The National Senior was started by the Athletic Round Table of Spokane, Wash., and for two years was played at Esmeralda Golf Course in that city. Last year was the first tournament play here, with a repeat performance slated in December.

GROWTH OF THE tournament has been consistent, both in entries and prize money. It has spread from one golf course to three and from 100 pros and amateurs to 372.

Winners during the three years have been:

1957 — Fred Wood, Vancouver, Canada, defeated Gene Sarazen in playoff.

1958 — Willie Goggin, San Jose.

1959 — Willie Goggin defeated Smiley Quick of Los Angeles and Olin Dutra of Palm Springs in playoff.

Phillies, Athletics Expected to Take Pitchers

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — The Philadelphia Phillies and Kansas City Athletics are expected to make some bargain — basement pitchers the first two picks in the annual baseball draft today.

The Phils, with No. 1 choice by virtue of their last-place National League finish, leaned toward either Jim Donohue, a former St. Louis Cardinals' farmhand who pitched for St. Paul in 1960, or Al "Red" Worthington, who quit the Chicago White Sox in a huff after being consigned to the minors.

Ohio State Given Top Cage Rating

NEW YORK — Ohio State, last year's NCAA champion which once again boasts All-America Jerry Lucas, received a record vote from the United Press International Board of Coaches today as the pre-season choice for No. 1 college basketball team in the country.

Heaume, Frahm Tie for First At Indian Wells

INDIAN WELLS — Jack Heaume and Louis Frahm tied for a first place net 58 in the 18-hole Member-Member tournament of Indian Wells Country Club this weekend, against a field of 40 foursomes.

H. E. Alford and W. S. Eldridge gained second with a net 61, followed by one stroke with the net 62 third spot of Tom Carter and Jack Izu.

Best ball foursome net 53 was carded by Heaume, Frahm, Archie Jacobs and D. A. Boone.

In December, the Southern California Open will be played here.

Palmer Boosts Earnings to New Record

MOBILE, Ala. — Top prize money in the Mobile — Sebring PGA Open boosted Arnold Palmer's 1960 earnings today to a record yield for a year's play on the professional golfing circuit.

The 31-year-old fireball from Ligonier, Pa., in one of his characteristic blazing finishes, won the $15,000 Mobile Open Sunday and took the champion's share of $2,000. This brought his earnings for the year to $73,716.19, nearly $900 above the PGA money-winning record set in 1956 by Ted Kroll.

Palmer, recently voted golf's man of the year, fired a seven-under-par 65 in the closing round for a 72-hole total of 274, two strokes better than Johnny Pott of Shreveport, La., a co-leader in the second and third rounds with Freddy Haas of New Orleans.

PCL May Take In Hawaii Team

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Pacific Coast League president Dewey Soriano said the league may operate a franchise in Honolulu next season following the forfeiting of the Sacramento franchise Sunday night by an affirmative vote of seven members.

Soriano said the forfeiture decision was made after William Golsong, president of the Sacramento Solons, failed to show up at the minor league meetings here to confer with PCL officials.

EAGLES AGAIN WIN OVER N. Y. GIANTS

By JOE SARGIS
United Press International
OK now, so what can the Philadelphia Eagles do for an encore?

For the second straight time Sunday they beat the defending Eastern Division champion Giants (31-23) with New York's most potent weapon — defense — plus Norm Van Brocklin, and now they need only one victory in three remaining games to get a whack at the National Football League title for the first time in 11 years.

THE EAGLES get that chance to nail down the Eastern Division title next Sunday when they play the St. Louis Cardinals on the road. And if they miss, then they have added opportunities against the Pittsburgh Steelers and Washington Redskins.

Not so, though, in the Western Division where the defending champion Baltimore Colts are acting as if they don't want the title and the Chicago Bears as if nothing would please them more.

GIVEN A BREAK on Thursday when the Green Bay Packers were upset by the Detroit Lions, the Colts could have helped themselves mightily Sunday, but the San Francisco Forty Niners out-dazzled the champs with an unorthodox passing game for a 30-22 upset victory, while the Bears moved to within a half-game of the Colts by beating the still winless (now 10 in a row) Dallas Cowboys, 17-7.

The Cards, who seem to improve each week, rallied to tie the Cleveland Browns, 17-17, at St. Louis and the Pittsburgh Steelers proved poor hosts in handling the Washington Redskins a 22-10 beating in other NFL games.

IN THE AMERICAN Football League, the Los Angeles Chargers parlayed the passing of young Jack Kemp and the running of Paul Lowe into a 52-28 victory over the Oakland Raiders to all but sew up the league's Western Division race, and the Denver Broncos rallied for 24 points in the final period to gain a 38-38 tie with the Buffalo Bills.

A week ago after the Eagles had beaten the Giants in New York with the defensive platoon playing a major role, skeptics said, "OK, show me" they can do it again.

WELL, IT TOOK the Eagles a while to get rolling the second time with a partisan crowd of 60,457 looking on in Franklin Field, Philadelphia, for the Giants roared to a quick 17-0 lead.

With "gambler" Van Brocklin leading the offense after Dan Burroughs, Bob Freeman and Maxie Vaughn had picked off four interceptions on Giant quarterback George Shaw, the Eagles finally grabbed a 24-23 lead in the fourth period and then added the touchdown that put the game out of reach following recovery of a Giant fumble by Jim Carr.

Shaughnessy Out, Issues Warning

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Frank Shaughnessy bowed out as International League president today with a warning to major league owners that they can kill baseball by becoming "too greedy."

The 77-year-old Shaughnessy, who has served as International League president for the past 24 years, announced his retirement but said he will remain on the job until a successor is named.

Bob Rosburg Is Bermuda Dunes Winner

Tallies Birdie On Final Hole To Win by One

Former National PGA champ Bob Rosburg, San Francisco, tallied a birdie on the final hole of the Bermuda Dunes Member-Guest Pro-Am tourney this weekend to sweep the play with a one-point lead 140 in 36 holes.

Rosburg escaped a water hazard in a long drive for his 70-70 card, edging out runners-up Ralph Evans, Candelwood, and Dick Lindahl, Los Angeles, by one stroke on the card.

Professional Paul Runyan, La Jolla, teamed with amateurs J. E. Thompson, Wilshire; George Glassoff, Tamarisk, and Jack Semrad, Bermuda Dunes, for a 116 best-ball card. The tally was 28 under par for the long course.

The scores:
INDIVIDUAL PRO
140—Bob Rosburg, 70-70.
141—Ralph Evans, 71-70; Dick Lindahl, 70-71.
143—Max Evans, 69-74; Smiley Quick, 71-72.
144—Tommy Jacobs, 73-71; Olin Dutra, 72-72; Len Kennett, 71-73; Bob McCullister, 69-75.
146—Stan Kertes, 72-74.
147—Zell Mason, 73-72; Jerry Priddy, 72-75.
148—John Bulla, 72-76; Walter Burkmo, 76-72.
PRO-MEMBER-GUEST
116—Paul Runyan-J. O. Thompson-George Glassoff-Jack Semrad, 58-58.
117—Pete Peretti-Dr. George Pateha-Doug Gamble-Earl Buckingham, 58-58; Berkemo-Zeppo, Marx-Kent Hayes-Jim Mapes, 55-62.

American Loop Stuck With Expansion Mess

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — The American League is stuck.

And there were no more sorry spectacle than the glum group of American Leaguers who stood around hotel headquarters of the baseball meetings today vainly trying to work their way out of the expansion pickle they now are in.

TURNED DOWN flatly by the National League in their compromise nine-team, inter-league play proposal, AL officials conceded in blunt but scrubbed-up language that they must now fish or cut bait.

"You might say several possibilities are open to us," said one disgruntled American Leaguer. "And you can also say that which ever possibility turns out to be the most reasonable will be the one we won't follow."

RIDICULED AND poked fun at from all sides because of their fumbling efforts to put a 10-club structure into operation by 1961, some American League officials even were going so far as to say they deserved the public humiliation they are suffering.

General Manager Frank Lane of the Cleveland Indians, however, feels the AL will go through with its announced intention of having or placing a team in Los Angeles next season despite the objection of Dodger owner Walter O'Malley and other NL officials.

Real Estate for Sale

Sh-hh!

Posh, plush, palatial. We keep trying to keep quiet about Araby Point Estates—Palm Springs' newest, most exciting development of 3 and 4 bedroom homes. (Because it hasn't officially opened yet.) But in spite of our good intentions, we get carried away. For example, who could keep quiet about these Araby Point Estates' owner extras?—floor to ceiling fireplaces with built-in log lighters; wall-to-wall carpeting; refrigerated air conditioning by Rheem; chef-approved, all-gas kitchens; rock wool insulation; professional landscaping; fenced rear yards; ranch-size lots; custom hardwood cabinets; weatherstripped doors and windows; sixteen foot wide paved driveways; oversized double garages with room for hobby shop laundry area; built-in living room plant wells... are just a few of the luxury features we aren't allowed to mention. Including: Araby Point Estates' preferred location in the wind-free south end of town. Where you find seclusion and privacy just minutes from downtown. Realistically priced from $27,900.

For a Sneak Preview, drive east on Palm Canyon Drive, past Smoke Tree Ranch, to Araby Drive, south one quarter mile to Araby Point Estates model home. Please don't tell your friends. The carpenters are artists. Crowds upset them.

POET'S CORNER

THANKSGIVING WITH A HAPPY ENDING

By Michelle Gaul (12)
43-700 Buena Circle, Palm Desert
If you ask me what Thanksgiving is, I'll tell you just exactly this: Thanksgiving's not a day cut out from all the rest. On which we have a jolly feast With food at its very best. Maybe that is true, but still it's not exactly so. Thanksgiving is a day of thanks As the word does plainly show. But it does seem enough just to Cut out one tiny day. Twenty-four little hours for the Millions of thanks you should say

So let's all be thankful and Avoid grudges and hates Until we reach those pearly Gates. And St. Peter says, "Come in, do." We can say, "Oh, Thank you!"

A NICE LITTLE POEM

By Wendy Weissman (8)
925 Sunny Dunes, Palm Springs
The winds blow. The seas flow. All kinds of things are happening. The girls dance. The horses prance. All kinds of things are happening. The butterfly glides. The fly hides. All kinds of things are happening.

Story Hour

THANKSGIVING

By Linda Falk (13)

2980 Starr Road, Palm Springs

You may find the origin of Thanksgiving in a book, but to understand its real meaning you must search your heart. There, and only there, is Thanksgiving's true purpose written.

The early settlers of our great nation first celebrated this day to thank God for their good fortune. We today bow our heads over heavily-laden Thanksgiving tables and utter a few simple words of thanks. We of America are fed, while many of the world's people are starving behind the Iron Curtain. Let us remember these things as we give thanks.

When we give thanks, it need not be in words. We need only to live good Christian lives and do our best to further the cause of God. This is thanks enough.

Braincracker

T.T. is happy to report that Timothy Jay Smith of 31-069 San Gabriel Circle (9) cracked the brain teaser. That's fine! Glad that no one was stumped this time. Tom is the oldest. Howard is the youngest.

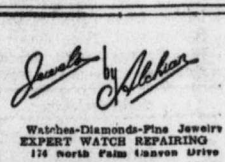

Tortoise Tim's TIMES

T. Tim and all his friends wish to express their sincere appreciation to the fine group of judges who gave up so much of their time to read the many, many, many entries in the Thanksgiving Contest and for doing the hardest job of all — selecting the winners and runners-up.

T. T. wishes to congratulate the winners and all who entered. Your stories showed good thinking and much effort.

To us, the most fortunate of all boys, girls and young people, blessed above all nations and people, each day should be a day of thanks to Him, "the Giver of every good..."

I hope you had happy holidays and T. T. will see you when he returns from "up the road apiece" avisting a brand new Jeffery in T.T.'s family. Adios, amigos.
